

It doesn't get much better than this!

The Creativity Retreat at Wai-iti Beach Retreat, Taranaki.

3 days of creativity in a stunning environment

Whether you are an aspiring writer, business person, teacher, scientist, artist or someone curious about the creative process and seeking to further unlock your creativity, this retreat can help you discover and nurture your particular way of expression and break through blocks that inhibit creativity.

"To create something you have to be removed from the world. In order to have liberty to imagine something better, you need to step outside for a while."

Bruce Mau . Designer

This is your opportunity to step outside for a while . . .

- if you need time and space to recharge your creative batteries
 - if you are curious about the creative process
 - if you are seeking to unlock your creativity
- if you need to put some life back into your creativity
- if you need to put some creativity back into your life

To check out this fabulous beach front retreat site, visit www.wai-itibeach.co.nz

Interested?

Check out the details of the Creativity Retreat at www.future-edge.co.nz.
Hit the creating button! See what others have said about the retreat and download the brochure.

You take care of your accommodation and meals from the range of options offered at Wai-iti – from camping and self catering to luxury cabins and restaurant meals. You could even come for the days if you are local – but you won't get as much from the retreat!

Numbers will be restricted to 15 participants. We'll be basing ourselves in the 'theatre' at Wai-iti and making good use of the stunning environment and you will be introduced to the 'creativity challenge'!
Dates to be decided – do you have a preference?

How much? For three creativity filled days in a stunning environment $285 incl. GST.
Travel, accommodation and meal costs are not included.

Express your interest and enthusiasm or ask for more information:
wayne@future-edge.co.nz or call Wayne on 027 242 1580 or 06 753 5914